NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.

He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves in [illegible] all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent heretofore considered the best [illegible]

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

EASTERN DATES TO MARCH 24

Congressional

WASHINGTON, March 24.—In the House [illegible] of the Military Committee made a report on the subject of the cadetship. It states that the Committee have taken evidence in many cases and found the existence of irregularities in appointing cadets outside the Districts of members making the appointments; that in several cases money has been paid to parties for negotiating such appointments, but except in the cases acted on none appears to have been paid to members, and that the facts proven are not sufficient to warrant the Committee in prosecuting these cases. The Committee having discharged their duty faithfully and impartially asked to be discharged from the further consideration of the subject. The Committee also reported a bill making a two years residence for a cadet in the district from which he is appointed, requisite; they also recommend the adoption of a resolution requesting the Secretary of the Interior to remove Gen. Schoob from the Patent Office for acting as a medium through which one of the sales of cadetship was made, and directing the Speaker to exclude from all privileges of the floor, committee rooms, Clerk's rooms, or galleries of the House any person who has been or may be proved guilty directly or indirectly, of attempting to bribe any member for any purpose whatever; also a resolution that there is evidence showing that Commander Upshur, of the Navy, has placed some money in the hands of M. D. London with the view of procuring the appointment of his son to the Naval Academy, and that this be sent to the Secretary of the Navy, with the request that he do convene a Court Martial to try Commander Upshur for conduct unbecoming an officer. After discussion the bill was amended so as to make the term of residence of cadets one year, and then it passed. An amendment by Garfield to the resolution about Upshur, requesting the convening of a Court Martial to ascertain whether he had been guilty of unofficer like conduct was defeated and the resolution was then adopted as was the report.

Mungen requested Logan to state whether the committee had any evidence affecting his character. Logan replied that if they had they would have certainly reported the fact.

McNeely, of the Committee on Education reported a bill to authorize the Legislatures of Territories to pass general acts of incorporation for educational purposes; passed.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the tariff bill. Cook addressed the committee in favor of a reduction of the tariff on lumber, salt, sheet and pig iron.

Allison made an elaborate argument in favor of the reduction of the tariff and in favor of the laboring classes who he claimed were not protected though largely outnumbering the class to whom protection is extended.

The House took a recess till the evening session for general debate on the tariff.

Washington Matters in General

WASHINGTON, March 24.—A table has been officially prepared at the Treasury Department showing that a sinking of $25,000,000 per annum will cancel the national debt in twenty three years and six months, and the sinking of $100,000,000 in less than ten years.

The President had an interview with several of the Republican members of the Virginia Legislature, in which there was expressed no opinion in regard to the municipal controversy in Richmond. He said Gen. Canby would have been blameable if he had not done what he did to prevent riot and bloodshed.

The Senate Postal Committee have agreed to report a bill subsidizing the Pacific Mail Company for mail service between San Francisco and China to the extent of $1,000,000 per annum. The service to be monthly.

Col. W. Hoffman, U. S. A., has been relieved at his own request from May 1st next to June.

Schuyler is confirmed as Secretary of Legation at St. Petersburg.

The Pacific mail steamer bill was amended so as to require the Company to build ships at the rate of one each year, and recommending that they be iron.

The United States Supreme Court will hereafter strictly enforce its rule regarding business and not permit the filing of a brief after the case has been called for argument. The case of Thompson and others against the Union Pacific Railroad of Kansas, involving the right of a State to tax the property and franchise of the various branches of the Pacific Railroad is now under argument.

The Senate was engaged this afternoon four hours in considering the San Domingo treaty. Sumner opened the debate in opposition to the ratification, occupying the floor till the session ended, giving way occasionally to Senators who made brief remarks, based on his answers to questions which they had propounded to him. The Senate will resume the subject to-morrow. The time for exchange of ratification expires on the 29th.

P. J. O'Sullivan arrived here to-day direct from San Domingo, bringing important official dispatches, and including the general result of the vote in favor of annexation. The Minister of Foreign Affairs says there is not more than two per cent. in the negative. O'Sullivan refutes the charges against parties who were prominent in advocating the negotiation of the treaty.

Boutwell and Commissioner Delano are now before the Senate Finance Committee relative to extending the time for keeping whisky in bond. They agreed in recommending a retention of the time as in the present law.

The Happy Family in New York

NEW YORK, March 24.—There is an excitement among the politicians over the crisis at Albany, which still continues. Tweed's letter that he has resigned his position as Deputy Street Commissioner has caused considerable surprise. Words are said to have passed to-day between Tweed and Ganat. The former declared that he was on the war path to the bitter end. It appears that he was relieved by the Street Commissioner McLane, the new appointee to the office.

The World to-day claims that the Ring has been smashed. It says that Sweeney, Tweed & Co. as a power in the Democratic party are utterly demoralized; that the Young Democracy are consolidated as nothing but treason and the Republicans could have done. It concludes the article by declaring war to the knife and the knife to the hilt. Per contra, others say that Tammany was never so strong as since Tuesday's work. Meanwhile, the war is progressing at Albany. Resolutions and bills are preparing by the Tammany party to worry the Young Democracy, and a combination is talked of with the Republicans to make a new city charter which is intended as a direct blow at the Young Democrats [illegible]

At a full meeting of the New York Yacht Club last night the terms of the race in which Asbury's yacht the Cambria is to compete for the possession of the cup won by the America nearly twenty years ago were agreed on. It was resolved that only schooners of the club should enter in the race.

A Bloody and Hardened Criminal

WHEELING (Va.), March 24.—Thos Carr was hung in the county jail at St. Clairsville, this afternoon for the murder of Miss Fox in January 1869. Carr according to his own confession has been one of the worst criminals in this or any other country. He acknowledges to perpetrating fourteen cold blooded murders and to having made five unsuccessful attempts at the same on the [illegible] to the killing of Miss Fox.

The Travails of New York Democracy

ALBANY, March 24.—W. M. Tweed announces that he has not resigned his Deputy Street Commissionership of New York and has no such intention. He says he has made sacrifices and intends to prevent his ruin in the party, and the tricky fools who inaugurated the present trouble must be responsible and suffer the consequences. He bides his time. A caucus to-night of Young Democrats resolved to call a general caucus of all Democratic members of the Legislature to bind themselves to vote for every bill agreed upon on pain of being branded as traitors to the party. Tweed's friends also met and canvassed the situation. Tweed said he would have a charter for New York ready next week that would be satisfactory to the best men of all parties and reduce taxation in New York $100,000 yearly.

Havana News

HAVANA, March 20.—About 1,500 Spaniards and a number of Cubans held a mass meeting last night and adopted a resolution for protecting themselves against any policy involving sale to the United States.

The steamer Yazoo arrived to-day all well.

Concerning the City of Boston

NEW YORK, March 24.—Captain Bolivar of the Helen Maria, arrived at Spithead in distress from New York for Antwerp. He states that she left New York on the same day as the steamer City of Boston on the night of the 28th January met a hurricane from southeast to northwest which, while she hove to, took away her fore top mast, jib boom and although she had no sail set at the time her new sails were taken completely out of the jackets and blown away. The Captain believes the City of Boston must have been in the same hurricane.

A letter from Halifax says the City of Boston was loaded with wheat when she left there 18 or 20 inches deeper than insurance allows. She sailed, says a letter from here, on Friday, and we had a fearful storm next day. If she encountered this there is no hope whatever of her turning up. It is believed she, as well as the Orient which sailed two days before, was caught in it off Newfoundland.

The Right Kind of Landlord

NEW YORK, March 24.—A. T. Stewart has reduced the rents in all his city property from 10 to 30 per cent. The reduction was made without solicitation of tenants.

Gen. Ames' Chances for Admission

The friends of Gen. Ames claim to have made a careful canvass of the Senate and are certain he will be admitted by a handsome majority. He is understood to be for San Domingo and against Bingham's amendment to the Georgia bill.

Gen. Sherman on Indian Affairs

CHICAGO, March 24.—The Times dispatch says General Sherman yesterday wrote a letter in reply to one from Sheridan defending his conduct on the Indian question. He endorses Sheridan's letters and believes Col. Baker's reports to be true, and that no Indians were killed wantonly. He alludes to the tide of immigration encroaching upon Indian reservations. He says the army has a divided duty and must protect white settlers and also Indian lands.

The Prospects for the San Domingo Treaty

CHICAGO, March 24.—The Tribune's Washington special says such canvass of the Senate as it is possible to make shows them apparently about equally divided on the question of the ratification of the San Domingo Treaty. The President is pressing the case strongly, and it is said don't consider yet that the treaty is defeated.

Miscellaneous

BALTIMORE, March 24.—The steamer Dolphin, from Philadelphia for Richmond, was burned to the water's edge at Patuxent, Maryland. The crew barely escaped with their lives.

LOUISVILLE, March 24.—Jacob Gabel living in Charleston, Indiana, was killed to-day by the accidental discharge of a pistol in the hands of his son.

BOSTON, March 24.—A board of the Cuban League of the United States, organized last night. Chas. H. Woodbury presided and Frederick Prince was chosen President of the League.

ST. LOUIS, March 24.—About thirty men are in the hospital suffering from the effects of working in an air chamber under the pier for the bridge across the Mississippi. One man died to-day. This is caused by the pressure of air in the chamber which produces muscular paralysis and congestion.

BY THE CABLES

LONDON.—The turret ship Captain made a second trip yesterday a long way out to sea. She experienced rough weather. The trip was successful beyond expectation.

The strike of workmen at Le Creusot, France, continues. Several demonstrations were made by men but so far harmless. The military and police are active. It is thought political feeling is involved in this second outbreak.

The increase of specie in the Bank of England during the week is £159,000.

The testimony on the first part was not convincing. Other witnesses were brought to show the good conduct of the prisoner as an officer. While one of the lawyers for the prosecution was undergoing the cross examination he used an expression offensive to the Prince who violently interrupted the proceedings by turning to the lawyer and denouncing him and his party as a [illegible]. Debate on Confederation

VICTORIA, March 23.—The Legislature is still discussing Confederation terms. The tone of the popular members is in favor of a form of government similar to that of the Eastern provinces. The debate on the question has been protracted and bitter, one member asserting that the people will not longer submit to the present form of government.

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, March 25.—Last night some Custom House officers watching for smugglers in the vicinity of the Pacific Mail Steamship Co's dock discovered three men under the wharf in a boat. The officers rowed toward them but the men pulled away as fast as they could. They were hailed but continued to ply their oars when the officers drew their pistols and fired three or four shots in the air. This act threw the men into confusion and they upset their boat. One of the crew clambered upon the keel and reached the shore but the other two disappeared in the water, and probably both were drowned. The officers found several hundred taels of opium floating in the water afterwards and secured it. To-day some man gave information to the Custom authorities that a large quantity of opium was stored near the Oakland ferry landing at the foot of Second street. Some officers went to the place and found 3,400 taels of the drug stowed away in an old scow. It was seized, and will be confiscated. The value of the entire lot will amount to about $6,000. The names of the missing men and the man who escaped, could not be ascertained.

The work on the Oakland freight car ferry boat is being prosecuted vigorously. It was stated that it would be completed and the first cars landed from the steamer at Oakland to-day; but this morning the apron at the end of the spit had not been finished and graders and track layers were at work. Parties interested in the improvements contemplate building a wharf from the foot of Second directly out to Mission Rock. Work will be commenced immediately.

A heavy newspaper mail was received via Western Pacific Railroad this morning; also by California Pacific. This is a portion of the matter which was delayed at Omaha a few days since.

The case of John Stratman, charged with publishing a libel on J. C. Duncan, was called in the police court to-day. Judge Sawyer intimated that he considered it the duty of an examining magistrate to commit a defendant to answer before the grand jury on a prima facie case being made out. Defendant's counsel said preliminary examination would be waived and thereupon defendant was held to answer and required to give bonds in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance.

The Central Pacific Railroad Company offer a reward for the arrest or such information as will lead to the arrest, of the parties who set fire to the railroad bridge across the American river. They promise not to prosecute persons implicated who may furnish the information required.

The mail steamer China was placed on the dry dock this morning for repairs.

THE WALES SCANDAL.—The letters of the Prince of Wales, to Lady Mordaunt, concerning which so much curiosity has been excited, form as harmless a correspondence as can possibly be imagined. They were not produced at the trial of Mordaunt vs. Mordaunt in the Court of Matrimonial Causes, but have been published in England, it is supposed with the permission of Sir Charles Mordaunt. The letters, eleven in number, are written in just such a spirit as might be anticipated to exist between two sincere friends who had known each other from infancy. The subjects are as follows: Acknowledging a present of knit muffetees, returning thanks for the purchase of a lady's umbrella in Paris, promising to obtain for a protege admission to an asylum, giving information in reference to a pair of ponies, announcing the birth of an infant princess, and congratulating Lady Mordaunt on having recovered from the measles. The other portions of the letters consist of descriptions of shooting and hunting parties and allusions to the incidents that were occurring, such as the slippery rails in traveling, the capital for sledging, the ridiculous appearance of a friend in a kilt, and so forth. The longest letter gives the traveling programme of the Prince and Princess of Wales and their three eldest children. As far as the letters are concerned, there is not the slightest foundation afforded for the recent painful accusations made against the Prince of Wales that he was following in the footsteps of George Fourth. The divorce suit has resulted in favor of Lady Mordaunt, the jury deciding that her ladyship was insane when she made the confessions of guilt, with the Prince of Wales and others to her husband.

The Fifteenth Amendment.

Washington Correspondence (March 5) N. Y. Times.]

The official proclamation of the final ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment, now so anxiously awaited is drafted, ready for date and signature. The President informed your correspondent this morning that the delay in issuing it was warranted by the fact that it is absolutely necessary that the proclamation should leave open no question whatsoever by which the validity of the amendment could ever be questioned; that there was doubt in some minds as to the legal form of the ratification by Indiana, and as to the effect of the repeal of the ratification by New York, that exclusive of these two there would still be the requisite number of States, to wit, twenty-eight; but there was the further question in some minds as to the validity of the ratification by Georgia and Texas not yet admitted to representation. As it was therefore in the highest degree desirable that all these doubts should be settled, it had been decided that the proclamation should be deferred until Congress had declared Georgia and Texas entitled to representation, when there would be no longer any question as to whether or no they were States in the Union and the number of States requisite for the ratification would be full exclusive of both New York and Indiana. Official notice of the ratification by Nebraska has been received, leaving Texas only to be heard from. The President expressed a desire to make the proclamation by the 14th inst. but that would depend upon the action of Congress in regard to Georgia and Texas. Public attention will, therefore, be again directed towards the United States Senate and should such a debate arise as occurred in the case of Virginia there should be protests from every quarter of the country.

DROWNED ON THE EVE OF MARRIAGE.—A recent sad occurrence in Illinois is thus related in the Galena Gazette of March 3d:

A young man named Joseph Ridlough and a young lady named Lizzie Lasbelle were drowned on the night of the 26th ult. in Plum river which runs through the eastern part of the county under particularly painful circumstances. An attachment had existed between the young man and the young lady for some time and their marriage was to have taken place yesterday had Providence spared their lives, but sad to relate on the above night the young couple, accompanied by Mr. Ridlough and a younger brother of the lady, returning from an entertainment at Savannah, attempted to ford the river at the usual crossing place over the breast of the dam. The river however had risen and when they were about half way across the horses stopped and refused to proceed any further. Mr. Ridlough [illegible] and discovering that they were in danger returned to the wagon [illegible] and then made their way to the heads of the horses [illegible] to put their heads up the stream, but [illegible] occasioned by their [illegible] the wrong line was pulled and the horses, wagon and all four of the party were swept [illegible] by the force of the current [illegible]. Young Lasbelle swam to the shore landing at a place about one hundred yards below the dam. The horses were taken out the next morning. They were still alive. Nothing has since been heard of the young man and the lady. The young man was employed in the woolen mill at Hanover. This is the second couple that has been drowned, on the eve of their marriage, in Plum river.

SATURDAY MORNING MARCH 26 1870

Oregon's Honor at Stake

Every citizen of Oregon who is not blind and fast in the toils of unreasoning partisanship must kindle with indignation at the attempt of the Democratic party to place this State in a position which would bring lasting dishonor upon her. There is no use to mince words in talking about the Democratic platform—that platform is simply infamous. The party that stands upon it must be defeated, or Oregon is dishonored. The pride of our State, the reputation of our people, our hopes for the present and our prospects for the future—all these are at stake. If this party triumphs on such a declaration of principles as it has made, Oregon covered with shame and disgraced before the country, will be unable to hold up her head among her sister States. Surely Oregon's worst enemy could not have dealt her a fouler blow!

That the Democratic party would announce a platform in which the measures of their political opponents would be severely criticised and strongly opposed, everybody had expected; but that an attempt like this should be made, at the command of the extremists of the party, to pledge Oregon to repudiation and to the adoption of a general policy which would be disgraceful to any people no one could have anticipated. The issue as presented by the Albany Convention is no ordinary case of party difference: it is not a case in which each party can contend for its own policy while the honor and welfare of the country are secure in the event of the triumph of either, but it is a case in which a Democratic triumph would proclaim to the world the degradation of Oregon. Every interest of our State, as well as its good name, will suffer from the mere publication of this platform throughout the country. How much greater our disgrace if the State deliberately gives it her approval in the election. But let us not think so meanly of the people of Oregon as to suppose that they will fail to administer a crushing rebuke to those who would thus trifle with her honor and all her dearest interests.

The platform throughout is malignant in spirit, thoroughly reactionary, and worse in all respects than has emanated from any Convention in any State. Even the Democrats of Kentucky would hear its utterances with amazement, if not with indignation. There is no word in it which indicates a spirit of liberality or a conception of the duties and requirements of the times. Such bigotry, such bitter partisanship, such blind devotion to the narrow ideas of place-seeking demagogues, were never seen before. There is nothing in the platform that could stand for a day before the judgment of the American people. It is unnecessary to particularize, the whole animus of the document is as bad as the worst stuff of the party could make it.

The people of Oregon will easily see what is at stake in the coming election. Only when [illegible] was before them was the occasion more momentous. And not secession itself, even had it succeeded, would have been fraught with greater calamity to the United States than would attend the repudiation of the national debt and the adoption of the reactionary policy indicated by the Democratic party of Oregon. It matters not that candidates are presented against whom personally there is need to say little; any candidate standing upon such a platform is unworthy of the suffrages of a self-respecting and honorable people, who would guard zealously the reputation of their State and the interests of the whole country.

County Republican Convention

The County Convention of the Republican party will assemble to-day at the Court House at one o'clock precisely, to select twenty delegates to attend the State Republican Convention, to meet here on the 7th April. A campaign fraught with consequences to our State more important than any which has preceded it, is now opening, and all Republicans who are entrusted in any way with the control or management of the affairs of the party should realize the supreme importance of deliberating well on every step to be taken, to the end that the very best men may be put forward to represent the party and perfect harmony insured. Good representative men should be elected for the State Convention. Private interests and feelings should in all cases be suppressed. The Democratic party of Oregon has made a great blunder, and it now becomes Republicans to take advantage of it and save the reputation of the State. We would impress upon Republicans in all places a sense of their present responsibility. Let not this opportunity be thrown away and the name of our fair State be dishonored!

Editorial Notes

It is stated that $50,000,000 of Northern Pacific railroad bonds have been negotiated with leading Eastern banking houses. Large quantities of supplies are being forwarded to various points on the line west of Lake Superior.

Not less than $500,000,000 of American bonds are held in Germany, a large proportion of them in the hands of the middle and lower classes, who have invested all their savings in them. The Democratic party of Oregon says that these bonds shall be repudiated. Our German fellow-citizens will of course appreciate this kindness.

It is said that Democratic imports are beginning to pour out of Yamhill, Polk and Benton counties in great numbers. They perceive that their pay is in danger, and are afraid to trust a party that pronounces for repudiation. As the candidate of the Salem factory company wants to repudiate the national debt they deem it highly probably that the said company will repudiate its promises to them.

During the last three months the applications to Judge McCoy for Chinese house servants have averaged thirty per month. The demand for common laborers has varied owing to season weather, etc. But there is a little point right here to which we wish to call the attention of our Democratic brethren, whose Convention has just been fulminating against Chinese labor. The preponderance of employers of Chinese, as will appear by an examination of the records, is Democratic. We commend this fact to the consideration of those persons who have been denouncing Chinese labor at Albany.

In 1868 that high Democratic authority Horatio Seymour, then a candidate for President of the United States, said that in New York alone not less than $200,000,000 in national bonds was held in various forms of trust, as the property of widows and orphans, for the benefit of charitable and educational institutions, and as investments for savings banks, life insurance companies, etc. These are part of the funds that the Democracy of Oregon propose to adjust by cutting down the principal one half and stopping the interest. Of course even more of these bonds are now invested in these ways than in 1868, and as Seymour said, "are the reliance of immense numbers of active business or laboring men and women."

One of the resolutions of the Democratic Convention earnestly demands a repeal of the recent treaty concluded between the United States and China, which guarantees to the latter nation such extensive privileges and immunities and [illegible] and offers to its hordes of semi barbarians such favorable inducements to swarm in upon us. We have heretofore frequently shown that this treaty grants to Chinamen in the United States no privileges they did not enjoy before. This treaty consists simply of additional articles appended to the treaty negotiated by a Democratic Administration in 1858 under which Chinese had the right to come to the United States on equal terms with other foreigners. They have now the same rights of travel and residence as then—no more and no less. Nor are they "swarming in upon us" more rapidly than they did in times when Democrats controlled the Government and were making treaties with them. During the period from 1850 to 1860 more Chinese came to America than during the like period from 1860 to 1870. These facts have repeatedly been shown by official figures. It is not greatly to the credit of the Democratic party that it must rely on shams and falsehoods exclusively.

A Very Sick "Red hot" Demonstration

Some enthusiastic Democrat got immensely red hot yesterday, and with a view of doing honor to the returning Democratic delegates and getting up a red-hot Democratic furore betimes hired the Mechanics' Brass Band (without regard to expense) and had it stationed at the wharf to receive and escort through "all the principal streets" the immense throng which it was expected would swarm thereabouts, on the arrival of the steamer. The boat came; she tooted her whistle; the band, being paid for it, tooted their horns; the delegates landed. One of the defeated candidates from this city, seeing the intention to "demonstrate" and "ratify," sloped through the crowd; another tried to slope, but was brought to a halt by one of the red hotters, with an invitation to "face the music." With a malediction upon the music, he fell in, along with another defeated candidate with a carpet bag. The two were reinforced by six others including the Oregon City Democratic editor, and four of the boys about town, making a procession of twelve, exclusive of the band. The band tooted again and the procession moved. It was a moving, we might say "teching" sight. No tale of woe was ever more woful than the appearance of this bedraggled, toil worn and sick looking muster of used up candidates and their wet nurses. The band tooted and marched, and marched the twelve, down the dock to B street, up B to Front, up Front to the Cosmopolitan Hotel, marched this procession while the straggling crowd of curious lookers on filed along the sidewalk, laughing, jeering and scarcely able to repress an outright hoot—so ludicrously woful was this red hot "demonstration." The greater part of delegates, not disposed to be laughing stocks, stole away at the start, and those who thought, at first, that something might come of it and who being along on either flank ready to strike should the iron get hot, finally stole away also on cross streets or into friendly door ways, till at last, there was nothing of the "Great Democratic Convention" to be seen, save only the two (with a carpet bag) and the six, and the four boys about town who had tailed on to the procession for the fun of the thing. And thus with measured, silent and mournful tread, this "bobtail" procession wended its way along, while new comers upon the scene asked with bated breath and sympathetic voice, "whose funeral is that?" It may not be improper to state in conclusion, that the procession was just two hours in passing Bascom's, and as a veracious chronicler of passing events, we could not undertake to say that all the delegates got past that friendly retreat in so short a time.

A Fitting Protest

The Evening Commercial, as an independent paper, has an article earnestly protesting against the folly and dishonor of that portion of the Democratic platform which refers to the national debt. Rightly regarding this resolution as fraught with more importance to Oregon than all the others combined, the Commercial proceeds to say:

> If the debt is to be equitably adjusted, the holders of the bonds certainly have a right to be heard in the arbitration. Though only one man holds the combined indebtedness, lawfully obtained by him of twenty other men, yet in any arbitration of the matter with a view to an adjustment of the total debt surely no rational person will deny that the individual creditor has rights equal, not simply to any fractional proportion of the twenty debtors, but to all of them combined. It is not a case wherein mere numerical voice has rightful control. And this very rule measurably covers the bond paying question. But we contend that, even thrusting aside for the moment the rule of right, and assuming simply the line of policy, the people of Oregon, as of every other portion of the whole nation, would greatly lose in the end by a repudiation of the national debt, stupendous as it is, and that they will all greatly profit finally by their expressed acknowledgment of the whole debt as it stands and their full and unreserved payment of it. And as we have before had occasion to remark of all the States not one at this particular period, has used to display with more readiness the disposition to patiently carry the just proportionate share of the heavy burden of the public debt than Oregon. No matter how the people of this State shall view this platform resolution we here comment upon, the people of other States and of other nations will judge us agreeably as we approve or reject its sentiments, and they will stand convinced that a people who do not hesitate to commit themselves to a repudiation of their nation's debt, will equally repudiate their State, their county, or their own private indebtedness whenever the occasion happens. More crushing than the weight of war's worst disasters would such a calamity result to this fair and favored Commonwealth.

The Statesman says: Mr William Corbett informs us that the overland daily mail contract from Portland, Oregon, to Oroville, California, has been let to Theodore Ise of Atchison, Kansas, at the rate of $80,000 per annum.

The Mercury tells of a female in Benton who got wrathy at a school teacher, went for him and gave him a horse-whipping. The woman was arrested and taken before a justice before whom she pleaded guilty of "beating a little sense into the head of a fool." The justice fined her $15, which she sturdily refuses to pay, on the ground that "beating sense into the head of a fool" is not an offense under our statutes—and thus the matter rests.

THE ALBANY CONVENTION

ALBANY, March [illegible] 1870.

[illegible] the delegates and [illegible] the Democratic Convention here have been coming in until yesterday, when the last of them arrived from the south. At the appointed hour for opening the Convention the main body of the delegation wended their way toward the [illegible] crowd [illegible] arriving [illegible] they found some few candidates who had [illegible] on the platform engaged in whiling away the time at a little game of old sledge, [illegible] "Daisy Dean," [illegible] At 11 o'clock L. F. Grover appeared and the card players having vacated the table on the platform he took his stand and called the assembly to order. He stated the object of the meeting, but as the band was still playing "Daisy Dean" outside, his voice could not be heard. After the music had ceased Geo. L. Curry was chosen temporary Chairman, La Fayette Lane Secretary and A. W. Stanard Assistant Secretary.

Mr Fay of Jackson moved that a committee of three be appointed on credentials and the motion prevailed.

Watkinds of Marion moved that a committee of five be appointed on permanent organization. A delegate suggested that the Convention would do well to ascertain who were members before such motion be put, and Chapman of Multnomah agreed with him and so Watkinds withdrew his motion.

The reporters for the press were invited to seats inside the bar.

Ben Hayden of Polk moved that the Convention adjourn to 1 o'clock P M. Hereupon several members arose and it was decided that Humason of Wasco was entitled to the floor. He thought the Committee on credentials should be appointed before the Convention adjourned. Hayden then withdrew his motion and the Chair appointed Messrs Fay of Jackson, McCown of [illegible] and Burch of Polk as the committee on credentials, after which the motion to adjourn until 1 P M was carried.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The afternoon session was opened by the band with "Listen to the Mocking Bird." The committee on credentials reported, and the report was adopted. There were about thirty proxies in the Convention and Josephine and Tillamook counties were unrepresented at the time the report of the committee on credentials was made. Through Barker of Douglas proxies were afterward received from the Josephine county delegation. The order of business being decided on after quite an animated discussion as to who should be "trotted out" first, the candidate for Governor or for Congressman, the officers as reported by telegraph, were chosen and the committee on platform appointed. A Sergeant at Arms being needed, Shuck, of Yamhill, nominated Humason of Wasco, who declined, and A N Arnold was elected. The Convention then took a recess until seven o'clock in the evening.

EVENING SESSION

The band varied the evening's entertainment by opening with "If I had but a Thousand a Year." The Committee on Platform then reported a series of resolutions which were read by McArthur of Baker, the Convention vociferously applauding the eighth resolution which declared "that the aggregate semi annual interest had more than compensated the bondholders, and that to relieve the country and restore prosperity the public bonded debt of the United States ought to be regarded as cancelled."

Jasper Johnson of Curry, and Cochran of Lane made a minority report against the eighth resolution, which was tabled on Ben Hayden's motion by a rising vote of 72 to 30. It being agreed that the platform should be acted on by sections the resolutions were adopted until the eighth was reached, when Cochran of Lane offered as a substitute the Union county repudiation resolution, whereupon the "bed rockers" immediately moved to table the substitute, which move prevailed by a vote of 93 yeas and 31 nays.

Want of space precludes us from giving an extended report of the proceedings at this point, but the genuine Democratic party cropped out most plainly all over the house. Humason led off in a speech against the assertion of such outspoken sentiments of repudiation, but evidently his motive was policy. His speech was answered by Ben Hayden in a strong repudiation harangue, when he characterized Cochran's assertion that the repudiationists were disorganizers, and sought to throw fire brands into the convention, as false. Reed, of Multnomah having made the same assertion as Cochrane of Lane in reference to the repudiationists, McArthur "went after him" and hurled the imputation back at Reed and all who united with him in opposition. The excitement grew, the fight waxed warm, and seemed likely to become "red hot," but Fay and Hayden who led the "bed rocks," were compelled to accept a modification of the resolution, though they still maintain that as modified, it means the same thing as the original.

No man who saw and heard their proceedings last night, can doubt that the position of the Democratic party of Oregon is largely in favor of flat footed repudiation.

Later—This morning the Convention nominated Slater for Congress, and are balloting for nominee for Governor as I write, the candidates being Grover, Chapman and Whiteaker. Nesmith's nomination by Jasper Johnson was received with laughter. Fay named Gen. J. W. Jasper Johnson as the choice of Southern Oregon for Congressman, but Jasper "denied the soft impeachment" of being a candidate and declined. Grover is nominated as the mail closes.

SECOND DAY

The bed rockers are accusing the policy men of being "cowards," "Belmontites," and one delegate was said by another to be "a Seymour Democrat." Though the pleadings and the arguments of Humason, the beseechings of Chapman, the persuasions of Andy Shuck and the bitter invectives and cutting sarcasms not unmixed with sound arguments against the eighth resolution last night caused Hayden, McArthur and Fay to relax their grip, yet it was clearly and undeniably evident from the speaking and the voting that at least two thirds of the party are flat footed repudiationists, as Fay was characterized by Humason last night. There was much excitement at an early hour this morning, or rather the excitement of last night had not cooled off. The platform appears to satisfy the leaders of both wings, but the repudiation article being capable of three or four constructions is not just what the unsophisticated bed rockers of Eastern Oregon and Long Tom wanted. But Fay and Hayden assures them that "equitable adjustment" and "cancellation" mean one and the same thing. Humason calls the payment of $1,300,000,000 and repudiation of all the balance of the United States debt equitable adjustment. We should judge that he has certainly been fortunate in securing data if his figures are not a few hundred millions out of the way.

But we forbear further comments on this point and come to the

NOMINATIONS

This was the first thing in order at nine o'clock this morning, the hour to which the Convention adjourned last night. The Convention came promptly to order and the first man proposed was Slater of Union county for Congress. Next Fay of Jackson arose and to ridicule the gentleman from Curry asked leave to place in nomination General Jasper W. Johnson as the choice of Southern Oregon. Johnson acknowledged the honor and said that many of his friends who would doubtless have been glad to support him were now probably not in a condition to do as they would have done had his name been put forward at an earlier moment. He therefore asked Fay to withdraw his name. After the laughter caused by Fay's weak fling at Johnson had subsided Slater was nominated for Congress [illegible]. Then Ben Hayden called for a speech from the [illegible] and about twenty other delegates joined him. Just here there must have been at least a dozen men on the floor shouting "Mr Chairman," about forty in different parts of the house calling "Slater," the remainder of the Convention crying "order," "sit down," while the Chairman beating the desk with his gavel and waving a sheet of legal cap over his head vainly strove to still the tumult. After a while Ben Hayden, whose tongue is amazingly loose, obtained a hearing by talking faster and louder than the rest and moved that each candidate before the Convention be required to give his views of the platform, but the motion was ruled out of order, and the nomination of a candidate for Governor was next taken up. Andy Shuck named L F Grover, Thayer of Multnomah named W W Chapman, Fay named John Whiteaker. Jasper Johnson said his instructions were to present the name of J W Nesmith, but a delegate whose name we did not learn withdrew the name of Mr Nesmith at his own request. Grover was then nominated on the first ballot, receiving 100 out of 159 votes cast. Chapman was supported by the entire delegation from Multnomah, but we learn from Democrats that none of them except the Colonel himself had any idea of his success. The Laboring [illegible] of Multnomah county will now [illegible] disband. Chadwick, Zieber, White and [illegible] were then trotted out for the prize of the nomination for Secretary of State. On the first ballot Chadwick received 82 votes, Zieber 14, the other two being badly distanced, receiving 18 votes apiece. For State Treasurer the vote stood: [illegible] Fleischner 105, Smith [illegible], Fiske 34 and Jake Cooper 13, and Fleischner was declared the nominee. A M Sayler, Thos Patterson, Beriah Brown and M V Brown were named for the office of State Printer and Patterson was nominated on the second ballot by a vote of 86 to 40 for M V Brown, the other candidates having drawn off. [illegible] Beriah Brown said the Herald was the [illegible] of Eastern Oregon and the West Side Railroad and that the local editor was [illegible] McArthur of Baker who had presented Patterson's name, which McArthur seemed to take as personal. McArthur replied that he didn't care whether [illegible] Harry or the Devil edited a paper [illegible] Chapman gave the local editor of the Herald another kick by saying that a prominent Republican could not enter the city but the local column blazed his name before the readers of that Democratic paper. Jones [illegible] very urgently presented the claims of M V Brown for the post.

The selection of candidates for Judges in the 2d and 5th Judicial Districts and of Prosecuting Attorney for each District in the State came next, and the names reported by telegraph were presented by the delegations of the respective districts and were declared the nominations of the Convention. A State Central Committee consisting of one member from each county was appointed as follows:

Baker county, J R McClane; Union, F S McComas; Umatilla, H C Page; Wasco, A W Fergusson; Multnomah, J H Lappeus; Columbia, Geo Merrill; Clackamas, Geo L Curry; Clatsop, Joe Jeffers; Washington, John Swick; Yamhill, A Shuck; Polk, Ben Hayden; Benton, R S Strahan; Marion, D H Murphy; Linn, J T Crooks; Lane, Jno M Thompson; Douglas, Lafayette Lane; Coos, W R Jackson; Curry, —— Vandergreen; Jackson, J N T Miller; Josephine, Chas Hughes. In the selection of a Chairman of this committee Humason took occasion to place Curry of Clackamas in nomination after Ben Hayden had been named by J F Miller for the place, which Fay thought was not courteous to Ben, and a feeling of bitterness was exhibited by several members which threatened to break out into some pretty hard words, and Humason refusing to withdraw Curry's name, at the suggestion of Fay and Miller the roll was called and Hayden was elected.

A motion to fix the place of meeting for the next Democratic Convention at the Dalles, Gates of Wasco opened his mouth for the first time during the session, except to vote, and said that his county had more fat beef and other refreshments necessary to Democratic stomachs than any other county in the State. The suggestion of the "other refreshments" was one of the most potent arguments he could have used and so the Dalles was selected. Thanks were then tendered the officers of the Convention, the citizens of Albany and the People's Transportation Co., the proceedings ordered published, and the most fanatically vindictive, the least patriotical, the most ultra national debt repudiating and politically corrupt Convention ever assembled in Oregon adjourned.

MISCELLANEOUS

It has been amusing to a Republican to witness the maneuvers of the Democracy in many cases during the Convention, and if there is not an undertow in the Democratic party of Oregon that means a great deal and foretokens a split as cheerful in its aspects to Republicans as that which occurred at the breaking out of the rebellion, we misjudge appearances. That a majority, a very large one too, in the Convention were repudiationists unqualifiedly, was clearly manifest, and the only thing that kept such a declaration out of the platform was a fear of overwhelming defeat at the polls. No reasoning mind can come to any other conclusion. A few of the delegates were opposed to it from principle, among these we count Jasper Johnson and Andy Shuck, but they have been misled, while Humason can be so or not so to suit circumstances.

A prominent Democrat from East of the Mountains told me to-day that "Grant county had been bound hand and foot and delivered over to the Philistines," referring to McArthur, who was one of the most earnest supporters of the 8th resolution of the platform as it was reported by the committee. Another delegate denounced McArthur as an out and out repudiationist and said he would never support him.

Watkinds of Marion county was, to say the least, guilty of ingratitude in his remarks in the convention, that if elected, they would "clean out the P T Co," as that company had been the only corporation liberal enough to reduce the rates of fare on any line of travel, to persons attending the convention.

Turk of Grant county, has been compelled to vote by proxy, as he was immediately arrested upon his arrival at Albany, and is yet in custody.

The Multnomah delegation will go home considerably crestfallen. Chapman and Zieber, the only names they presented, were beaten, and the Portland candidates selected were chosen by delegates from other counties. The Democrats here acquainted with politics in Multnomah generally admit that the State Convention has insured the success of the Republican party in Portland.

The crowd came down to Salem this evening and had a grand "blowout" at the Court House, after which they dispersed, and Bascom's is crowded at the present writing.

RETURNING HOME.—Several attorneys who hav [illegible] been at [illegible] this week attending Court in Orego [illegible] City returned yesterday. The ejectment suit o [illegible] John L. Barlow and W. C. Johnson vs the Peo [illegible] ple's Transportation Company, was [illegible] on Tuesday morning and occupied the whol [illegible] time of the Court until three o'clock on Thursday afternoon, when it was submitted to the jury. The jury had not returned a verdict at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The land at issue in this suit is partly covered by the P. T. Co.'s basin improvements at the falls. Hoelat and Kelley for plaintiffs, Mitch[illegible] all and Dolph for defendants.

The second trial of the case of E. E. Ston [illegible] vs the Oregon City Manufacturing Company, fo [illegible] [illegible] for the loss of an arm by plaintiff [illegible] [illegible] of defendants while employed in thei [illegible] mill, was begun at 3 o'clock on Thursday. Thi [illegible] case was once carried before the Supreme Court, and judgment obtained for the defense, but in [illegible] [illegible] of some objections to the charge in the previous case, the cause was sent back. Hon [illegible] and Killin for plaintiff, Logan and McCown for defendant.

LABOR EXCHANGE.—An inspection of the records kept at the Labor Exchange on First [illegible] shows that up to yesterday, from the first of Oc [illegible] tober last, 357 applications for employment have been made and 140 engagements ha [illegible] Taken by months, the following are the [illegible]

OREGONIANS IN THE CIRCUS BUSINESS.—A new [illegible] company has been organ [illegible] in California [illegible] of which is owned and controlled by Port [illegible] landers. This circus, which is [illegible] in part of Costello's Circus, Wilson's Ch[illegible], and the Bartholomew trick ponies, cage of lions, etc., is called the Overland Circus, and it bids fair to be the greatest and best exhibition of the kind which has ever been brought to this [illegible] The proprietors are Messrs. Leahy, Lowe & [illegible] It is more a menagerie and circus com[illegible] bined. They have a fine band of music and a chariot 15 ho[illegible] and 60 men, and when they come to Oregon will no doubt, [illegible] They begin playing in San Francisco on the 1st of April, will be in Oregon this fall and winter. Mr. Lowe of the firm leaves here to-day for San Francisco by the steamship Moses Taylor.

BITTEN BY A HOG.—On Thursday afte [illegible] Mr. Gallagher, living in the upper portion of this city, applied to Dr. Watkins to have a very ugly wound in the fleshy part of his lower right limb [illegible] It [illegible] that a Chinaman was [illegible] beat by Mr. Gallagher and was endeavoring to drive a hog along the road. The hog was hard to drive, and had made one or two [illegible] charges at the Celestial, when Mr. Gallagher volunteered his assistance to the Chinaman, and in doing so the hog made for him, [illegible] his leg as above indicated. The gash was not very long, but it was deep and made a very painful wound. One of the muscles of the limb was nearly [illegible] cut off. Mr. Gallagher returned to his home, but before reaching there was very faint and weak from the loss of blood and pain incident to the injury he had sustained.

AN OLD MAP.—One of the oldest maps of any town site in Oregon, we presume, is now in this city in the possession of J. F. McCoy, Esq. It is one of the original maps of the plat of Canemah, Clackamas county, and was lithographed for Messrs. Bailey & Hedges, who then owned that important point in Oregon Territory. On looking at that old map yesterday, we thought how bright the prospects of Canemah must have been, when it was made. The owners had as high hopes, perhaps, for the future greatness of that city as many of the present day. At this time Canemah is a quiet place, an environ of Oregon City, partially filled with substantial residences, and is the home of the most sociable and hospitable people in the State.

IN BRIEF.—Courts have not been in [illegible] for two days and we have had very fair days for rain.

The Pioneer Woolen Mills of San Francisco have a large case of Oregon manufactured goods on the steamer wharf here for shipment.

The time for paying taxes will expire on Monday next.

M. L. White is having a new residence constructed at the corner of Park and Washington streets.

Six persons applied at the Labor Exchange for situations yesterday: One bootmaker, one blacksmith, three laborers and one servant girl.

REAL ESTATE.—The records of the County Clerk's office show the following entries for record yesterday in real estate transactions:

T. M. Gatch and wife to W. S. Ladd, lots 1 2 and 3 in block 70, $[illegible]

Returned Home.—Several attorneys who have been this week attending Court in Oregon City returned yesterday. The ejectment suit of Jos. E. Harlow and W. C. Johnson vs the People's Transportation Company, was commenced Wednesday morning, and occupied the whole time of the Court until three o'clock Thursday afternoon, when it was given to the jury. The jury had returned a verdict at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The land at issue in this suit is partly occupied by the P. T. Co.'s basin improvements at the Falls. Hurd and Kelley for plaintiffs, Mitchell and Dolph for defendants.

The trial of the case of S. E. Stone vs. the Oregon City Manufacturing Company, for damages for the loss of an arm by plaintiff in the [illegible] while employed in their service, was [illegible] at 3 o'clock on Thursday. This case was carried before the Supreme Court, and [illegible] obtained for the defense, but in [illegible] of some objections to the charge in the [illegible] case, the cause was sent back. Henderson for plaintiff, Logan and McCown [illegible].

Labor Exchange.—An inspection of the records kept at the Labor Exchange on First street, shows that up to yesterday, from the first of October, 257 applications for employment have been made, and 140 engagements have been made. By months, the following are the [illegible]:

	Applications	Engagements
[illegible]	78	29
[illegible]	52	25
[illegible]	38	15
[illegible]	58	18
[illegible]	70	35
[illegible]	91	18
	257	140

The number of applicants seem to increase, but the [illegible] is an obstacle to the per[illegible] at present. Mr. Drake is [illegible] as the weather improves, and there [illegible] call for employes that numerous ap[illegible] his books may be supplied with [illegible].

[illegible] in the Circus Business.—A new [illegible] organized in California, [illegible] which is owned and controlled by Port[illegible]. This circus, which is composed in part of [illegible], Wilson's Circus, and the [illegible] trick ponies, cage of lions, etc., [illegible] the Overland Circus, and it bids fair to be the [illegible] and best exhibition of the [illegible] has ever been brought to this coast. [illegible] are Messrs. Leahy, Lake & [illegible]. [illegible] more a menagerie and circus com[illegible]. They have a fine band of music and a [illegible] and 60 men, and when they [illegible] Oregon will, no doubt, create a sensation. They are playing in San Francisco on the 1st of April, will be in Oregon this fall and winter. [illegible] of the firm, leaves here to-day for San Francisco by the steamship Moses Taylor.

[illegible] Hog.—On Thursday afternoon a [illegible] living in the upper portion of this [illegible] Dr. Watkins to have a very ugly [illegible] the fleshy part of his lower right limb [illegible] that a Chinaman was passing [illegible] Mr. Gallagher and was endeavoring to [illegible] along the road. The hog was hard [illegible] had made one or two desperate [illegible] until, when Mr. Gallagher vol[illegible] to the Chinaman, and in [illegible] the hog made for him, cutting his leg as [illegible]. The gash was not very long, [illegible] and made a very painful wound. [illegible] of the limb was completely [illegible]. Mr. Gallagher returned to his home, but [illegible] there was very faint and weak [illegible] loss of blood and pain incident to the in[illegible] he had sustained.

An Old Map.—One of the oldest maps of any [illegible] in Oregon, we presume, is now in this city in the [illegible] of J. F. McCoy, Esq. It is one of the original maps of the plat of Canemah, [illegible] county, and was lithographed for [illegible] Barlow & Hedges, who then owned that important point in Oregon Territory. On looking at the old map yesterday, we thought how bright the prospects of Canemah must have been, [illegible] its owners had as high hopes, [illegible] for the future greatness of that city as [illegible] of the [illegible] day. At this time Canemah [illegible] quiet place, an environ of Oregon City, partially filled with substantial residences, and is the home of the most sociable and hospitable people [illegible].

[illegible]—Courts have not been in session for [illegible] days, and we have had very fair days for [illegible].

The [illegible] Woolen Mills of San Francisco, [illegible] a large case of Oregon manufactured goods [illegible] steamer wharf here, for shipment.

The time for paying taxes will expire on Monday next.

[illegible] Hatch and wife to W. S. Ladd, lots 1, 2 [illegible] in block 295; $93 50.

[illegible] Tibbetts and wife to Chas. F. Jones, [illegible] of land containing 6 and 84-100 acres in [illegible] Donation Land Claim, $927 23.

C. M. Carter and wife to Mark Swinerton, blocks 285 and 286, Coffin's Addition, $673.

Plaza Music.—The programme of the 23d Infantry Band, to be performed on the Plaza this afternoon at 2:30 P. M., is as follows:

1. March from the Opera Tannhauser — Wagner.
2. Soldaten Polka.
3. Aria from the Opera Belisario—"Sinla tanba."—Donizetti.
4. Quadrille from Masaniello — Auber.
5. Styrian Song, from Talisman.
6. Triumphal March.
7. Romance, from Grand Duchess "Say to him."—Offenbach.
8. Greetings to my Love Galop.

Supply Exhausted.—The supply of Dufur's [illegible], published by the State Agricultural Society, having become exhausted at the Labor Exchange, Mr. Drake is anxious to obtain any copies persons may have on hand, and will feel thankful to such as will favor him with the pamphlets. The demand for information concerning the [illegible] of Oregon, by Eastern people is still [illegible].

The Park Street Widening.—We now understand from the attorneys for the heirs of Nancy Lownsdale deceased, that there are no objections being raised to the proposed widening of East and West Park Streets by said heirs if conducted upon a just and equitable basis which there can be no doubt is the only basis proposed by the viewers appointed to assess the damages and benefits. Hence there is no probability of any disagreement between the heirs and the viewers when the latter submit their report to the City Council.

Attempt at Burglary.—About two o'clock yesterday morning Rev. A. Myers was waked by the noise of steps on the porch of his house. There seemed to be more than one person. Listening, he heard them take hold of the door knob—the door being locked—and gave a violent push. Then all was still for a moment and then the door was again tried in the same way but more violently. Upon this, Mr. Myers struck a light within, when the scamps hastily retreated.

Another Unfortunate.—One of those frail beings from the flowery kingdom, Miss Ah Chow Chu, or some such name, committed suicide at a brothel on Second street on Thursday, and was taken to her grave yesterday. We asked our informant why she did thus and he replied "No muchee likee life all same more." A Melican Man, who had heard of the affair informed us that she died in one hour and ten minutes by the watch, after taking the fatal potion.

Petty Thefts.—We yesterday learned of sundry petty thefts that have of late been committed on and about the wharves at the lower end of this city. On one occasion the perpetrator aroused a sleeper, who chanced to be in possession of a loaded fowling piece, the contents of which he would very properly have received to his personal injury, had he not have been extremely diligent in making his exit.

Child Hurt.—On Thursday afternoon a little boy, son of Mr. M. H. Abbott, while playing about the old ice house on Taylor Street, fell and broke one of his thigh bones square off. The injury was very painful for the little fellow, but he withstood the operations of a surgeon like a little man, and we are glad to hear is getting along promisingly.

Bold Theft.—Yesterday in open daylight, some person unknown, entered the doorway to Buck's Picture Gallery on Front street, and stole a case of about thirty pictures. It is the boldest act of this nature that has ever been perpetrated in daylight in this city.

Accident.—The steamer Carrie met with a slight accident during her last trip to Monticello, which necessitated the taking out of her rudder irons and conveying them to a shop for repairs. She will leave on her regular trips as usual.

Harmony Hall.—Mrs. Rosa Martin will lecture at the above hall to morrow evening at 7½ o'clock, on the subject of "Spiritualism Reviewed." No charge for admission.

No Service.—There will be no evening service to morrow in the Unitarian Church, nor till after the first Sunday of next month.

School Meeting.—A call for the annual school meeting for this District, to meet on the evening of April 4th, has been issued.

Club Meeting.—The National Union Club will meet this evening at their Hall, 108 Front street, at 8 o'clock.

A Grand Chinese Tournament.

Congress, it is stated, is about to pass an act to prevent the levying of oppressive and unconstitutional taxes on the Chinese in any State or Territory. It is certainly time that this was done. There is probably more necessity for the enforcement of such a law in California than anywhere else. In the Legislature at Sacramento a few days ago there was a grand Chinese tournament. John being entirely without representation, his valiant opponents had it all their own way, and they proved the superiority of their race in the clearest manner by evincing a most extraordinary dread of the prowess of the Mongolian. They passed several bills to keep out the hated Chinaman, all equally unmanly and contemptible, and all equally unconstitutional. The Sacramento Record says of these proceedings:

Hager's bills (two in number,) to prevent the importation of coolies and criminals, went through smoothly. The real object of these measures is to create a fat office for a Democrat, and it is rumored that Senator Mandeville is spoken of in this connection. The salary was fixed at $5,000 a year, but the Assembly was in an economical mood, and altered it to twenty per cent of the fees, (which will make it more than the sum originally proposed). Having settled this point to their satisfaction, the Assembly went after John again, and passed Miller's bill levying a tax of $4 per month on all Chinamen. This is so directly opposed to the Constitution that any child in the Public Schools would laugh at it. Yet the honorable gentlemen of the Assembly passed it by a strict party vote. "Now by St Paul, the work goes bravely on!" We have no word of expostulation for all this, and only desire that these Democrats should continue as they have begun. We know, and they know, that there is not one of their clap-trap bills that will hold water, and that they are not worth the paper they are written on. But the members were pledged to do something about the Chinamen, and they have done it. They can now face their constituents, and, and laying their hands on their hearts, say, "Fellow citizens, we have fulfilled our pledges. We have legislated the Chinaman clean out of his Mongolian boots. It is true that these laws will not stand the test of the Courts, but that is not our fault. We pledged ourselves to legislate as we have done, but we could not pledge ourselves to make unconstitutional measures constitutional."

A Public Benefactor.—Jno. A. Carr started the Gold Room with greenbacks at 80 cents. Good management has appreciated them to 95 cents. A rushing business is still done. Supply of gold inexhaustible. Hurry up the Legal Tenders. Hours of business from 6 A. M. to 12 P. M.

The Grover & Baker continues to maintain the lead among the Sewing Machines on this coast from its intrinsic merit, notwithstanding thousands of dollars are squandered in bolstering up the decaying reputation of rival machines. Wm. Currier & Co. Agents.

Railroad matters are very likely to be lively this spring. The East Side Company will engage a large force of men to complete their road to Albany, and the West Side Company will, very probably, build a portion of their road in order to obtain a land grant to facilitate the building of their line to McMinnville. Kohn & Fishel are keeping up with railroad times. Their stock of spring goods coming across the continent by rail will be the largest and finest stock of Clothing ever imported to this State. Their stock in store now is offered very low to make room for large arrivals. They are manufacturing the neatest Boys' Suits and always have on hand a large stock of the same which are offered at lowest figures.

Irritable Invalids.

Indigestion not only affects the physical health but the dispositions and tempers of its victims. The dyspeptic becomes, too, in a measure demoralized by his sufferings. He is subject to fits of irritation, sullenness or despair as the case may be. A preternatural sensitiveness which he cannot control leads him to misconstrue the words and acts of those around him, and his intercourse even with those nearest and dearest to him is not unfrequently marked by exhibitions of testiness foreign to his real nature. These are the mental phenomena of the disease for which the invalid cannot be justly held responsible, but they occasion much household discomfort. It is to the interest of the home circle, it is essential to family harmony as well as to the rescue of the principal sufferer from a state not far removed from incipient insanity that these symptoms of mental disturbance be promptly removed. This can only be done by removing their physical cause, a derangement of the functions of the stomach and its allied viscera, the liver and the bowels. Upon these three important organs Hostetter's Stomach Bitters act simultaneously, producing a thorough and salutary change in their condition. The vegetable ingredients of which the preparation is composed are of a renovating, regulating and alterative character and the stimulant which lends activity to their remedial virtues is the purest and best that can be extracted from the most wholesome of all cereals, viz: sound rye. No dyspeptic can take this great restorative for a single week without experiencing a notable improvement in his general health. Not only will his bodily sufferings abate from day to day, but his mind will recover from its restlessness and irritability, and this happy change will manifest itself in his demeanor and to all around him.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

Cairo, in Egypt, besides its 400 mosques, has a Catholic, a Greek, a Coptic, a Lutheran and an Episcopal Church.

The Independent says that the United Presbyterians have felt obliged to drop their mission to China, and to sell the property of the Board in Canton.

The Boston Congregationalist after giving the matter much thought, decides that the Rev. Horace Cook owes his disgrace to the habit of using tobacco.

Ten churches and seven rectories have been built by the Episcopalians of Indiana within the last four years, at an expense of about $150,000, an average of $75 for each communicant.

The First Presbyterian Church in Newburyport, Mass., has voted to hold a centennial service on Sept. 30th, commemorative of the life of George Whitefield. The celebrated preacher's remains lie under the pulpit of this church.

Rev. C. A. L. Richards, rector of the Episcopal Church in Providence, R. I., using a chisel to open a box of goods, the sharp corner accidentally struck him in the eye, and completely destroyed it. He was the late rector of Trinity Church, Columbus, Ohio.

A correspondent of the Presbyter says that in former years the Presbyterian Church was, with perhaps the exception of the Methodists, the most missionary church in the country, but admits that now, in the great Western and Northwestern fields, the Episcopal Church is far ahead of them.

The Evansville, Ind., have been holding the Rev. Hammond in terrorem over the heads of sinners. One of them told the sinners in his audience, a few Sabbaths since, that they had better come down then, because, if they didn't, they would have to when Hammond come.

Some twenty or thirty of the great churches and cathedrals of Mexico are deserted and going to ruin. Some are shops, stables or manufactories. There are twenty-eight Protestants places of worship in the city, with audiences of from fifty to 150, addressed by converted priests or laymen.

A San Francisco paper says: "The Philadelphia papers state that the chief cause which induced the Rev. Dr. Wadsworth to leave San Francisco for their city was its superior moral tone. Apropos to this remark, the Doctor had his overcoat stolen the other night while he was preaching. No San Francisco thief could have done that.

The practice of disposing of goods at church fairs by lottery has been adjudged by the city court at Waterbury, Connecticut, as partaking of the character of gambling. An action was brought to recover the value of an umbrella disposed of in this way, and the judge, in rendering his decision, assumed strong ground against such lotteries, and cited a late decision of the Supreme Court of the State in support of his decision.

The Montreal Presbytery of the Canada Presbyterian Church has been discussing the case of a church which uses instrumental music. It was proved that quite a number have introduced the innovation, and it was finally voted that it would be injudicious to press the motion of censure, as "it would tend to bring this Church into ridicule," and the accused church was not the only one at fault.

The Central Presbyterian, of Richmond, says: "The experiment has now been tried in many Presbyterian Churches of abolishing the complicated and offensive system of pew-ownership, and even of renting pews, and, we believe, everywhere with the most gratifying results. The voluntary Sunday morning contributions have gone far beyond the sum of pew rents or taxes; and far better than that, many more are being brought within the sound of the Gospel."

Mr. Pentecost, formerly of Covington, Ky., has recently settled as pastor of the Baptist Church in Hanson Place, Brooklyn. At the close of his weekly prayer meeting, he asked the attention of the audience to this statement, which is worth copying: "A few ladies have complained because I have not yet called on them at their homes. Let me explain. I shall have been with you one month next Sabbath. I have made one hundred and seventy-five visits and prayed in one hundred and fifty families. I have attended two funerals. Every morning is consumed in conversation with inquirers. I must have a little time for study. Be patient. I will see you all as soon as I can."

Elihu Burritt, who has traveled in England twenty-five years, and seen all its churches and cathedrals, has found a new service in a new place, one similar, in some respects, to the services in the Catacombs. The Rev. J. Keateh goes down into a coal mine at Blackheath, near Birmingham, every Wednesday, and reads a chapter of the Bible to the miners, and gives them a short, loving, and instructive sermon while they are eating their dinners. Mr. Burritt went down with the preacher one day, and found himself in a sort of underground cathedral of the Gothic order. In the transept and chancel sat about eighty men and boys, each holding up a candle, and listening reverently to the reading and preaching, while while they silently ate their noon meal.

An Important Discovery—Moabitish Antiquity Found.—A letter from Jerusalem, published in the French Journal Officiel, gives the following account of a remarkable archæological discovery made by M. Clermont Ganneau, dragoman to the Consulate of France in that city. The object is "a great block of basalt found to the eastward of the Dead Sea, in the territory of the ancient Moabites. Upon this block is engraved an inscription some thirty lines in length, in Phœnician characters, commencing with these words, 'I, Mesa, son of Chamos.' Mesa was a Moabitish king, who is mentioned in the Bible, and contemporary with the prophet Elisha, with Jehosaphat, King of Judah, and Ahab, Ochosias, Joram, Kings of Israel. The third and fourth chapters of the Second Book of Kings give a detailed recital of the campaign undertaken in concert by Joram and Jehosaphat against Mesa, King of Moab. The inscription upon the stone also refers to the struggle against the King of Israel, and enumerates the towns built and the temples erected by Mesa, and dedicated by him to the national deity of the Moabites—Chamos.

"The age of this monument is determined by the agreement of its statement with Jewish history. It dates nine centuries before the Christian era, and is nearly a century later than the reign of Solomon. It is nearly two centuries earlier than the famous sarcophagus of Echomonnazar, King of Sidon. The Phœnician characters of the inscription present some archaic features not to be found in the same degree in any of the Phœnician monuments hitherto known. The inscription, however, is decipherable with almost absolute certainty, as each word is separated by a point, and all the sentences are divided by vertical lines. The language is, with some slight orthographic variations, pure Hebrew. This valuable inscription, which enables us to bring a document contemporary with the events to which it refers into relation with the historical recitals of the Bible, has been forwarded by M. Clermont Ganneau to the Academie des Inscriptions, together with a dissertation which will be immediately published."

Good News from Washington.—The Commercial of Thursday has the following:

A leading citizen has received a letter from a distinguished public man in Washington, dated March 3d, and from which we are permitted to copy the following gratifying information in relation to the Portland, Astoria and McMinnville Railroad, and to other railroad matters in which Oregon is interested. The writer says:

"Senator Williams has done the best that can be done for your State at this time in relation to the road. Mr. Julian told me yesterday that he would put the bill through the House as soon as it was practicable.

"The Northern Pacific Railroad will get a grant of lands for the road from Puget Sound to Portland, and also the right of way to change the main line down the Columbia to Portland. And for aught I can see, Portland is destined to be the great railroad center of the Northwest coast. It is this very prospect which causes so much, I apprehend, Senator Casserly's opposition. He is devoted to his own city. Your [Oregon] Senators are equal to every emergency, notwithstanding."

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Portland, Thursday, March 25, 1870.

Gold to day at New York is 111⅞, a decline of ⅝ since yesterday.

Legal tenders at this city, 89a89½.

The money market is without change.

In the merchandise market there has been a little less activity than was observable yesterday, though the day has not been below the average for the week. Dry Goods rather quiet. Groceries—A few average bills sold to day, prices as heretofore. Other lines quiet to dull.

There is yet a marked quiet in produce, the only movement being among a few shippers of flour, wheat and provisions. The steamer now in port is taking a cargo mostly of flour. She will scarcely get a full cargo, however. We find no quotations to change. There is, however, a prospect that bacon and hams will do a little better, the demand having become more emphatic and prices quite stiff.

The Subsistence Department will ship by the Taylor 125 cases Cross' sugar-cured hams and smoked beef for army use to California.

The receipts of domestic produce to-day were, Apples 171 bxs, Bacon, 18 cs; Bran, 74 sks; Eggs, 45 bxs, Flour, 3,700 qr sks; Lard, 3 cs, Oats, 100 sks, Woolens, 8 bales.

From the telegraphic dispatches from San Francisco to the Commercial of to-day, we take the following in relation to sugar and syrups: "The California Sugar Refinery to-day reduced prices as follows: Circle A crushed, 18c; extra powder, 18½c; fine crushed, 18c; extra granulated, 12¾c; golden C, 10½c. The San Francisco and Pacific Refinery have reduced prices to the same standard, with one or two exceptions. The California Refinery syrup prices marked down to day, bbls, 60c; hf bbls, 65, kgs, 70c." It may be remarked, in this connection, however, that a recent dispatch from the East indicated a smaller than average crop and an advance in prices.

For the benefit of whom it may concern, we publish the following text of a circular of instructions from Commissioner Delano, to Assessors of Revenue, issued Feb. 7, 1870:

"Sir:—It is enacted in 117 of the Act of June 30, 1864, as amended by section 12 of the Act of March 2, 1867, that in estimating gains, profits, and income, there shall be included "the shares of any person, whether incorporated or partnership, who would be entitled to the same if divided, whether divided or otherwise, except the amount of income received from institutions or corporations whose officers are required by law, (section 110 and 122) to withhold a per centum of the dividends made of such institutions, and pay the same to the officers authorized to receive the same."

It is believed that heretofore there has been great negligence upon the part of those having such profits to make proper return thereof. You will give this matter your special attention, and will issue such definite instructions to your Assistants as will insure full and accurate returns of this class of incomes and gains."

CONCENTRATED

FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU.

The Great Diuretic.

The proprietor trusts that his medicines, from the fact of their being advertised, may not be classed as patent medicines.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

is a pharmaceutical preparation. The proper name is given, and it is the most active which can be made. It is endorsed as a remedy by all medical works for such diseases as recommended by the proprietor. It is pleasant in its taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and is taken by adults and children. It is tonic, diuretic, blood purifying and invigorating. Enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes will find it far more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron.

See medical properties contained in Dispensatory of the United States, of which the following is a correct copy.

BUCHU.—Its odor is strong, diffusive and somewhat aromatic; its taste is bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the urinary organs, such as gravel, chronic catarrh of the bladder, morbid irritation of the bladder and urethra, diseases of the prostate gland, and retention or the incontinence of urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. It has also been recommended in dyspepsia, chronic rheumatism, cutaneous affections and dropsy.

TESTIMONY.

Cure of Gravel of Five Years' Standing—Stone Passed and to be Seen.

Savannah, Tenn., May 14, 1869.

Dr. H. T. Helmbold:—Dear Sir: We introduced your "Fluid Extract Buchu" in this country about eight months ago, and are happy to state that it is meeting with universal favor. We wish to inform you of one instance (among many) where your "Buchu" has worked wonders. A man in our county, named J. B. Estell, had been suffering about five years with gravel. About six weeks ago he bought of us one bottle of your "Buchu," and before he was through with one bottle he passed a gravel that weighs eight grains, which we now have on exhibition in our drug store. He says that he will never be without the "Buchu" in his house again. Your preparations are gaining favor every day

Very respectfully yours, &c.,
ECCLES & HINKLE, Druggists.

Cure of Bladder and Kidney Affection of Long Standing—Stone Passed and to be Seen.

Westport, Conn., Sept. 5, 1869.

H. T. Helmbold, Esq.: Dear Sir—I commenced taking your "Extract of Buchu" about two weeks since for an affection of the bladder and kidneys. I have suffered by spells very much for a few days past. But yesterday relief came through the effect of your "Buchu." A stone passed from my bladder about the size of a large pea, and I now feel perfectly well and entirely free from the pain that I have suffered with "so hard." I attribute my cure to your medicine entirely, and would recommend all persons similarly affected to try it. I have great faith in its curative powers

Yours, truly, THOMAS J. BENNETT.

Cure of Kidney and Bladder Affection of a Patient Seventy-eight Years of Age.

THANKS TO MR. HELMBOLD.

Girard, Pa., March 31, 1869.

Editor Cosmopolite: I desire, as an unsolicited tribute to the merits of Helmbold's Buchu, and for the benefit of those similarly afflicted as myself, to say that after consulting many eminent physicians, and trying nearly all the best advertised remedies, in the vain hope of finding relief from aggravated kidney and bladder disease, from which I have suffered excessively for many years, good fortune finally suggested to me Helmbold's Buchu, which I commenced using, with little faith and no apparent beneficial results, for about a month. At the expiration of that time, however, I thought I commenced to experience slight relief, which encouraged me to persevere in its use; and now, at the expiration of four months, although I am an infirm old man, nearly seventy-eight years of age, and consequently medicines cannot be expected to favorably affect me as they otherwise would, I have found such unspeakable relief and permanent benefit from Mr. Helmbold's valuable discovery, that I feel I ought to publicly record the fact as an acknowledgment to him and a valuable suggestion to the public. Yours respectfully,

D. M. LAREN.

Burnside, Conn., Dec. 15, 1869.

DR. HELMBOLD:

Dear Sir: It is with much pleasure that I write you upon facts respecting myself. I do not know hardly how to express myself. I have been for the past ten years the greatest sufferer man could be and live; but more sometimes than others. The complaint was the "Kidneys" and "Bladder." I have been sometimes from twelve to fourteen hours, and wanted to make water every minute, but could not. Have consulted doctors, both in Massachusetts and this State, and taken pills, I may say by the quart, also liquored medicines, but found no relief from any, and got worse the last six months. I was so bad that I could scarcely get about. I could not rest night or day. It would soon have been "all up" with me, if I had not seen your advertisement in the Berkshire Courier, headed "Kidneys." I read it through, and thought I would try it. I purchased a bottle, but, mind you, had not much faith in it. Why should I, when I had been trying so many things, and cost me so much? Well, I began taking it, and before I had taken the first bottle I felt bad; but I had finished it and got another. By the time I took half of the second I still got worse (apparently). When I walked it seemed as if my right kidney was falling from its place, and I felt really bad. I felt so, before I had finished the second, that I had made up my mind it was of no use trying any more—and all this time the "Buchu" was doing its work, but I did not know it, so I gave it up, and went to Hartford on Saturday to one of the best doctors in the city. He said it was the neck of the bladder, and I should have to undergo an operation. He gave me medicine, and I went home quite downhearted. On Sunday I was unable to go to church. I had not taken any of his medicine, but on my return continued using the "Buchu," and in the afternoon I had a desire to make water, but could not. About one hour after I tried again, with the same result; but the next time I took the vessel it was the same as turning a faucet and stopping it off again. It was so for three times, and the third time there was something came through the passage and struck against the side of the vessel. I examined it, and it is the ugliest stone or gravel you ever saw, covered over with little pieces which collected together. It looks the color of a mud turtle, and is as hard as a flint. So you see the Buchu was doing its work, although I was feeling so badly. I procured another bottle, thinking there might be some more behind; but since that has passed, which is eight weeks ago last Sunday, I have been as well as ever I was in my life. I have the stone securely wrapped, and those who have seen the stone in this place are surprised. I cannot tell you all, but this is a true story of my case, and you are welcome to make such use of my name as you think proper. I am pretty well known in Berkshire, also in Connecticut. The advertisement saved me. Why not publish more? The Springfield Republican is a wide spread paper. If any one wishes to see this wonder they can do so. I could write all day, but think I have said enough this time, so I remain your ever well wisher.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cured and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of his complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, (Private Entrance on Commercial) San Francisco. Post Office Box 252
